Editorial,

With this number THE OUTLOOK enters upon a new period of its history. Hitherto it has had no constitution, and has been responsible to no one. The Editorial Board could publish whatever type of journal they saw fit; could issue it whenever they pleased, and could charge for it as the fancy seized them. The money they obtained could be spent on the Magazine or for their own benefit, and no one would be any the wiser. As announced at the close of last session, however, THE OUTLOOK now has a definite constitution, which places it to a certain extent under the supervision of the Alma Mater Society. The Alma Mater has the right of electing part of the Board; it has access to the books and oversees the expenditure and exercises a general supervision over the policy of the paper. With the weight of McGill's most important student body behind it, the position of THE OUTLOOK is assured, provided the students give their College paper the support they should. Last year the efforts of the Board to make THE OUTLOOK a paper worthy of the University which it represents succeeded in placing it in the front rank of American College weeklies. The present Board begins its work with every hope of being able to maintain the standard of excellence set last year, but their success or failure depends upon the assistance given them by the students. With a hearty response to the call for subscriptions, THE OUTLOOK can be made a paper which will be a credit to McGill, and of which every student may justly be proud, and the Editors earnestly hope for the co-operation of the student body in their efforts to make it such a success.

And now just a word to the Class Reporters and those who may be entrusted with reporting society meetings, etc. The revision of THE OUTLOOK matter takes considerable time, even when the copy is fairly written and arranged, but when the reports are sent in, written in pencil on any old scrap of paper that happens to come handy, the labour of correction and punctuation becomes greater than can possibly be performed in the time at our disposal. Further, the liability to errors in the proofs is greatly increased and there are continual misunderstandings with the publishers. The Editorial Board are doing their best to make THE OUTLOOK better than ever before. They wish to print everything of interest to the students, but their success or failure depends to a great extent on the amount of co-operation given by the students themselves. Hence, as a question of fair play we would ask that, besides making the reports as good as possible, they be sent in in as good a form as possible.

The Class of 1907 gives promise of being one of the best that has ever entered the University. They have shown remarkable quickness in arranging all the numerous details of Class organization, and under their very efficient set of officers have progressed much farther than most Classes in the same time. We are glad to see that they have taken hold of the Class Cap idea so early. THE OUTLOOK has always strongly advocated this system as a means of fostering University spirit, and we heartily congratulate the Freshmen on their enterprise.

Saturday McGill meets 'Varsity in the first football game of the season, and upon the result of this game depends, to a considerable extent, whether McGill is to land the championship again or not. We have a strong team, one which will do all in its power to win the game for us, but the students themselves can do a great deal. Nothing encourages a team so much as good steady rooting. Let every fellow turn out and cheer the team on to victory.

Now and then something lurid enough to cause a slight sensation of amused pity appears in the city papers concerning the doings about the College. The letter signed "Graduate," which appeared in the Gazette one morning last week is the latest of these effusions, and the sentiments expressed and the language in which they are clothed are so choice that we reprint it in full.

We rather incline to the belief that the epistle is the work of some fond parent whose offspring got more or less roughly handled in one of the rushes. As to the facts and arguments given, we shall let each student form his own opinion. Here is the letter:—

To the Editor of the Gazette:—

Sir,—I am a graduate of McGill. The year of my graduation is not very remote, but sufficiently so to anti-date the introduction of the modern innovation known as "cane rushes," etc.

In my day these were quite unknown at McGill. We read about them, and other similar contests, as being in vogue in the smaller colleges of New England and the Western States, and they did not appeal to us as worthy of imitation.

McGILL OUTLOOK.

They are, in my judgment, senseless, dangerous and brutal encounters.

Students have, as a rule, a certain quantity of surplus energy. A reasonable safety valve exists in the ordinary games of skill and athletic sports, which demand dexterity, self-control and discipline.

The rush on the other hand serves no good purpose, but is a rowdy, turbulent and hazardous affair, in which the brawny bully may achieve a glory that he cannot win in legitimate sport, still less in collegiate pursuits.

They are purely exotic, foreign to the purpose for which young men go to a university, and, in my judgment, and in that of many other lovers of McGill, should be suppressed, unless happily the good sense of the students themselves should lead to the abandonment of them.

It seems a reflection on our standard of civilization that youths attending college should indulge in such vulgar horse-play. The influence of these disorderly scrambles is distinctly bad, and is evident in the coarse and blatant manners that have made a certain class of college students a most obnoxious and unpleasant one.

The rush is un-British and puerile, and I counsel the students to meet and resolve to desist from them for the future.

Any bawcock, with superabundant energy that cannot be worked off in the football field, or gymnasium, might be asked to saw firewood or hoe the turnips in the college garden, leaving the ordinary young man, whose parents send him to college to get an education, and to acquire the habits and manners of a gentleman, to do so in a peaceful way.

Let the students of McGill adopt a somewhat higher ideal than that afforded by the uncouth customs and barbaric brawls of the cheap Yankee Seminary, whence these silly exhibitions arose, to gain a regrettable foothold in McGill and other institutions that should know better.

GRADUATE.

October 4, 1903.

Mr. E. T. Colton, a short sketch of whom appears in another column, is a University man who should be heard by a large number of McGill students. He comes to the University to inaugurate a movement of great importance to the whole student body. The meeting which he will address in the Medical building on Sunday afternoon will doubtless be largely attended.

WHAT'S WHAT, AND WHO'S WHO ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD.

Once again Old McGill is out for gore and glory. Once again her buildings look down proudly upon the Football Campus, where confused masses of red and white and mud indicate the hallowed presence of the pigskin sphere.

The same silent, critical crowd lines up along the cinder track or sprawls "over" the seats of the grand stand. There is the same shrill whistle of the coach, the same panting cry of the "follow up," and the same sharp orders of the "Old Player." To an outsider all this would appear as though resumed at the very point where last year it had ceased. But the I've-been-there-before student will note a great change. He will look in vain for many of the old familiar faces. He will ask if So-and-So is not turning out this year, and be told that So-and-So has left College, or that So-and-so has decided to study.

For a while this distressing view may somewhat dampen his spirits, but he will not long be able to resist the invigorating influence of the "living present." Eagerly he turns to scan the Campus for "new material," and he interrogates every one he meets with the query, "Well, what do you think of the prospects?"

Yes, that is the question. "What are the prospects?"

This Saturday McGill will meet her great rival from Toronto. Naturally, every one is anxious to have some idea of what to expect.

A very encouraging sign is the way in which the practices have been conducted ever since they first started on the 15th of September. Two or three of the old players are on hand every day coaching and hammering the men into form. The squads themselves have been enthusiastic in turning out regularly, and on the whole have been playing a swift, energetic game.

Thus, although, we cannot say that there has never been "a more promising outlook in the whole history of College athletics," yet we can assure ourselves of the fact that if enthusiastic, conscientious practicing and determination to do is of any avail, Old McGill will have still another occasion to be proud of her football team.

This opinion will be all the more strongly expressed when we come to consider individually the material which is at hand for the first and second teams.

Of the men who helped to win the Cup last year, seven can be counted upon to play this season. In other words, quite one-half of the new team will be composed of tried and trusty men; men whom we have learnt are to be depended upon; men who have confidence in themselves and in each other; who will stand together like one man, and form the very backbone of the team.

Of the forward line Mohr, Molson and Graham as wings, with Benedict and McPhee in the scrim., will make a pretty tough proposition for any opposing players.

Richards, who played half last year, has donned a "granny" head-gear, and is up to take Dutchy's place at quarter. He is not yet sure with his passes, but when he bucks he can get through the line like a bull.

It's a glad sight to see "Alfy" Hamilton behind his huge face guard, as he takes up his old position on the right half. A sure tackle, a sure catch with a cool head on his shoulders, he is, undoubtedly, one of the most valuable men McGill ever had.

Last year's scrub is well represented and will probably furnish several good, experienced players for the first.

Hammond is working like a Trojan on the wing line. He is quick, active and strong, and apparently untiring—comes up to scratch every time.

Since Martin was so unfortunately compelled to quit the game, it is encouraging to have two men like Grey and Sharp as outside wings. Grey plays a strong, aggressive game. Sharpe is very swift on the follow up, but is possibly not so effective in blocking.

MacDonald has never shown up better than this year. If he could only be depended upon to play as steady a game in a match as he does in a practice, we could not find a better man for full.

There is still the position of centre scrimmage to fill on the first, and many think Inksetter to be the very one. He certainly knows the game thoroughly, and his playing on the second last year was a strong feature.

Wilson is a marked man on the wing line. He has broadened out somewhat since last season. There was never anything the matter with his height. Some say he will have to fight pretty hard to hold down a first team place; others have every confidence in him.

Mike Sullivan is playing his usual steady game. Dowler is also on hand. Likely will be a good candidate for the second team halves.

Among those who are now turning out for the first time with McGill, we are glad to notice some old, experienced players, as well as much splendid material for future teams.

Sutherland, who played a star game for Westmount last season, has a line on the position of centre half.

Gamble, from British Columbia, is an old player and a man from whom much is expected as a half.

Zimmerman, of Hamilton, is more than a probable candidate for left half. He occasionally fumbles, but is a magnificent tackler and runner.

Stevens, from Winnipeg, has captained McMaster's for two years, and as outside wing gives every promise of being an acquisition for the first. He is a tall, well proportioned fellow and plays a quiet, telling game.

Dunny MacCallum has returned to his old allegiance and is playing a star game as quarter. It will be a difficult question to decide between him and Richards for Saturday's game.

Young is going to make a first rate centre scrimmage. He is not very heavy, but seems to be able to use his head pretty effectively.

Quinn and Mowatt are good men on the wing line. "Joe" is well known on the McGill Campus, and we hail with delight his return to the game. Kennedy, Archibald, Melis, Savage and many more are men from whom much may be expected before the season is over.

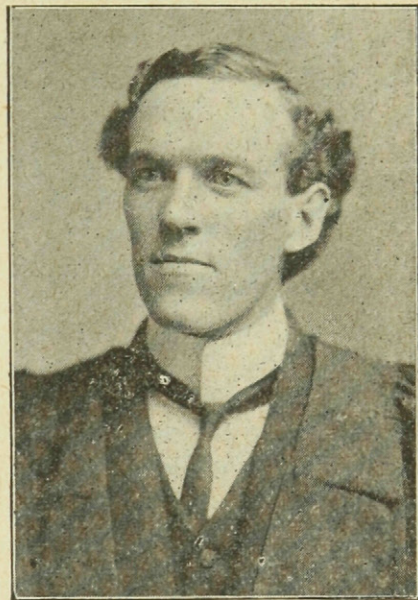

Such is the material which McGill has on hand just at present. Looking at it individually, as we have just done, it seems impossible for the College not to pull off all the honours. If the chosen team will only play together as one man, shunning personal ambition, there is every reason to expect them to be victorious. This was the spirit which characterized last year's fifteen, and last year's fifteen presented us with the Cup.

At any rate we may look forward to a splendid game on Saturday. Every man should make it a point of turning out to support his College team. Captain Mohr and his men have done and will do their best; let us also do our best by cheers of encouragement.

THE SPORTS.

Sports' day, notwithstanding the disappointment caused by the bad weather last Friday, was all that the heart could wish. The crowds which completely filled the large grand stand testified by their close interest and hearty applause to the popularity of our College Athletics among

J. D. MORROW,

Winner of the Individual Trophy.
1901-1902-1903.

the people of Montreal, and the entire day was one long to be remembered. Of the sports themselves little need be said; they are now too old a story. But we must congratulate Morrow on capturing the individual trophy for the third time, a feat accomplished but once before, and then by his companion in many a hard day's work for our Alma Mater, Percy Molson. May McGill never lack men of his stamp, whose unselfishness has done much to carry the red and white to victory on many a hard-fought day. Ogilvie's performance of breaking three College records also has our warmest praise, and we hope to see him repeat it next Friday. We offer our congratulations to another record-breaker, and finally to the Class of 1904, which has won the Inter-Class trophy its third consecutive year.

The results are now interesting mainly as showing us what we may expect in the Intercollegiate sports next Friday. From the table given,

W. P. OGILVIE,
Who broke three records.

it seems hardly possible for McGill to lose. A peculiar feature of this year's sports was the closeness of the marks made by the competitors in most of the events, and hence McGill can enter three men in nearly every event who can do almost equally well. We should, therefore, get three places in the hammer and high jump and two in the broad jump, mile, shot, 440 and discus. In the other events honours seem to be about even. Altogether the competition should be keen enough to make this year's meet one of the most interesting ever held, and every student should turn out and help to make it a success.

R. V. C. TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

The Second Tennis Tournament, held under the auspices of the R.V.C. Athletic Club, took place on the College Courts, Saturday, Oct. 3. When the play began on Saturday morning there were ten couples entered in the doubles. The five matches were played off in the morning. Miss Marcuse and Miss McCally acting as umpires. In the afternoon play was resumed, Miss Oakeley and Miss Dover being umpires. The game was very spirited and shewed remarkably good play. Owing to the unequal number of couples, there were three couples in the semi-finals. In the by between Misses Leacock and Trench, and Misses Douglas and Hitchcock, the former won. The finals were contested between Misses Holway and Lyman, and the victors of the other match, and after a very well contested set Miss Holway and Miss Lyman won. The match for the Cup was played off between Miss Lyman and Miss Holway, Miss Holway being the winner.

The second prize, a gold stick-pin, was taken by Miss Lyman. Tea was served on the lawn, immediately after which Miss Oakeley presented the prizes, congratulating the winners upon the excellence of their play.

The weather was ideal for lawn tennis, lending a special charm to the only out-of-doors' entertainment given by the College.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR BASKET-BALL.

The Annual Meeting of the McGill Basket-Ball Club was held last Thursday, in the Club room, at the University Gymnasium. There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of students. Mr. Chas. McKergow gave a glowing account of last year's successes, and predicted an even more successful season this year. He suggested the election of a manager instead of a captain, by the different Years, the captain to be elected later on by the players, chosen by the manager. This plan was afterwards adopted by the meeting. Dr. R. Tait McKenzie was unanimously re-elected Honourary President. The officers elected for the year were:—

Hon. Pres.—Dr. R. Tait McKenzie.
President—B. Higgins, '05.

Vice-Pres.—W. D. Lawrence, '04.

Sec.-Treas.—D. Ross, '05.

Manager 1st Team—Chas. M. McKergow, '03.

Committee-man—E. Locke, '07.

The proposal to form, if possible, a city league was enthusiastically received and agreed upon. Doubtless, in the near future, McGill will have a chance to prove her strength with the older city clubs. The practice hours for the different Years have not been arranged, but all students are invited to practice at the Gymnasium, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 5 p.m. The Freshmen especially are requested to turn out and get into good shape for the first Inter-Year matches. A very interesting and successful season in this branch of sport is to be expected this year.

FOOTBALL DAYS.

The football days have come again, the gladdest of the year;

One side of Willie's nose is gone, and Tom has lost an ear;

Heaped on the field, the players jab, and punch, and claw, and tear.

They knock the breath from those beneath and gouge without a care;

They break each other's arms and legs, and pull joints out of place, And here and there is one who gets his teeth kicked from his face.

The Freshman and the Sophomore, besmeared with grime and mud, Go gallantly to get the ball and quit all bathed in blood;

The Senior knocks the Junior down and kicks him in the chest,

The High School boy is carried home and gently laid at rest,

While here and there a crowded stand collapses neath its weight, And forty people get more than they paid for at the gate.

O brave, O happy, careless days!
How deep the mother's joy,
What time she thinks of all the things they're doing to her boy!
How proud she is to know that he is on the team; how sweet
His face appears to her since it is only bloody meat!

With honest pride she lays away his amputated ear,

And puts his eye in alcohol to be a souvenir.—Chicago Record-Herald.

MCGILL HARRIERS' CLUB.

A meeting was held in the Arts' building, Monday evening, Sept. 28, for the purpose of organizing a Harriers' Club. W. Ogilvie, President of the Athletic Association, occupied the chair, and after the meeting was called to order the following officers were elected:—

Honourary Pres.—Prof. McLeod.

President—R. Pease, Arts '06.

Vice-President—O. Hall, Sci. '03.

Sec.-Treasurer—W. Stewart, Arts '05.

Captain—A. W. Lohead, Theol. '04.

The Club intends to take two runs a week Wednesday afternoon, at 4.30 and Friday or Saturday afternoon. It is to be hoped that as many men as possible will join, both for the pleasure of the exercise, and to make the 'Cross Country Run a success. We should have 40 men for the 'Cross Country this year.

The Club purposes holding several Paper Chases and "Hare and Hounds" during the session, for which it is likely prizes will be offered.

No fee is charged, the pace is easy, and the exercise delightful. "Seeing Montreal cars" aren't in it!

Every Student wanted on the Campus Saturday Afternoon.

On Saturday, at 3 p.m., the first team of McGill meets 'Varsity in the first match of the Intercollegiate Series.

The team is in a first-class condition, and is putting up a game that should land the championship.

The only thing necessary to land the game with 'Varsity is proper support from the Bleachers. Let every man turn out and root for the College.

MCGILL HISTORICAL CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING.

The Historical Society held its opening meeting in the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday night, Oct. 8. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the last meeting, several new members were admitted. The following vacancies, caused by resignations, were filled; Treasurer, for which post Mr. Owen was chosen; Member of Committee, Mr. Hindley; Reporter, Mr. Rose. Dr. Colby then informed the meeting that Prof. Emmerton had expressed his willingness to give a Lecture under the auspices of the Society during his visit to the city. It was decided to take advantage of this opportunity, the details of arrangement being left to the Executive.

Mr. Gordon Brown, Arts '04, then read a paper on the Irish Land Bill. He handled the subject with marked ability, passing rapidly over the circumstances leading up to the framing of the present act, and dwelling more fully on the Bill itself, its history, and its probable consequences.

Mr. Talbot Papineau, of the same Year, then gave a highly interesting essay on Imperial Defence. He sketched the mood of placid self-confidence in their army from which the British public had been so rudely awakened by the Boer war; dwelt on the advantages of such a shock in arousing Imperial feeling and stimulating army reform, and ended by advocating a scheme of Imperial Defence consisting of the enforcement of the Militia Ballot Act for home protection, the maintenance of a volunteer army for foreign service, and the encouragement of the colonies to make themselves capable of self-defence.

After considerable discussion of Mr. Papineau's paper, the meeting adjourned, and after light refreshments the members separated.

OPENING MEETING OF MEDICAL SOCIETY.

The Opening Meeting of the Medical Society was held Thursday evening, in the Chemistry Lecture-Room of the Medical building. Though, from point of weather, the night was far from favourable, with a steady downpour of rain all the evening, the meeting was exceedingly well attended, and presages a very successful year for the Medical Society. The President, V. L. Miller, B.A., '04, was in the chair. The Vice-President, J. A. Nutter, B.A., Med. '04, in the early part of the meeting, brought before its notice a scheme which ought to prove a very successful one, viz., the appointment of a committee of eight, two from each Year, for the promoting of music at each meeting. The motion was carried unanimously, and the committee appointed.

The following was the programme of the meeting:—

President Miller's address on "Surgery of the General Practitioner," in which the speaker brought forth many points of interest to the future careers of Medical students, and showed clearly the scope of the general practitioner's surgery.

Quartette, by Messrs. Miller, Keddy, Johnson and —, which certainly captured the hearts of those present.

Prof. Wesley Mill's address.—The ovation which Dr. Mills received evidenced his popularity among the students. Dr. Mills spoke of the beginnings of the Society, and showed the importance of it to Medical students. He also touched on the qualities necessary to the success of a paper, and also good delivery. The address was as instructive as it was enjoyable, and Dr. Mills was rendered a special vote of thanks.

The vocal solo by Mr. Johnson was certainly a treat. The Freshmen are to be congratulated on having such an artist in their midst, and the appreciation of his audience was well shown.

Refreshments were afterwards served downstairs, and, altogether, the first meeting of the Medical Society was a great success.

Mr. A. R. P. Prendergast, Med. '05, also assisted in the musical programme.

UNDERGRADUATES' LITERARY.

The Literary held its first meeting on Friday, the second. The resignations of J. DeWitt, L. P. Edwards and J. Nicholson were accepted, and the vacancies filled. The Executive now stands as follows:—

Hon. President—Principal Peterson.

President—Ed. McGougan, Arts '04.

1st Vice-Pres.—A. D. MacKenzie, Arts, '04.

2nd Vice-Pres.—C. A. Adams, Arts '05.

Secretary—E. W. Sheldon, Arts '04.

Treasurer—Howitt, Arts '05.

Executive—W. S. Johnson, Law '06.

Committee—G. C. Papineau-Couture, Law '06; T. M. Papineau, Arts '04; W. J. Healy, Arts '04; W. Carr, Arts '06.

Reporters—A. Cameron, Arts '05; R. P. Wallace, Law '05.

The programme consisted of a most amusing recitation by R. P. Wallace, Law '05, and of impromptu speeches on different subjects by all the members present. A. D. MacKenzie, '04, was critic. It was a large audience, and the new members responded to the call of the President promptly and fearlessly. We cannot go so far as to say that all the speeches were worthy of the House of Commons, but they certainly showed that there is no reason to fear a depreciation of oratory talent in the coming year.

We hope the boys will turn out in larger numbers, even at the next meeting, and maintain the high reputation of the Literary.

DELTA SIGMA.

The first regular meeting of the Delta Sigma Society was held on Monday, Oct. 5, with the President, Miss Wilson, in the chair. After the transaction of the necessary business, it was found that an assistant secretary-treasurer was required, and Miss Coates, '07, was elected to that position. The subject of the meeting was an impromptu debate: "Resolved, that the McGill University publications should be amalgamated."

Several members discussed the matter, both for and against, very ably and to the point. The decision of the judges, Misses Freeze, Brooks and Gardiner, however, was given in favour of the negative.

The meeting closed with the announcement of the subject for the next meeting, Monday, Oct. 12.

Y. W. C. A.

The Annual Y. W. C. A. Reception, to welcome the new students of the R. V. C., which has become one of the brightest events of the session, was held in the Common Room, Sept. 30, from four to six. An artistic arrangement of autumn leaves and flowers added to the cosiness of the room. After tea and cake had been served, Miss Blanche Gilmor sang, and Miss Gardner addressed a large number of her fellow students, inviting them all, and especially the Class of '07 and the Partials, to the weekly meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Oakley then spoke, impressing upon the students the importance of lofty ideals to foster spiritual growth.

There was a large attendance at the first meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held Wednesday, Oct. 7, at 4 p.m. The President, Miss Gardner, conducted the entire service, taking as her subject, "Cain and Abel," as illustrative of the two contrasting types of humanity—the man of the world and the man of God. At the close of the meeting announcements were made concerning the Bible and Mission Study Classes, which are to be carried on this year as usual.

Y. M. C. A.

COLTON TO SPEAK IN MCGILL.

Mr. E. T. Colton, who has been secured to speak before the students of McGill on Sunday, the 25th inst., has already gained an enviable reputation for so young a man. President

MR. E. T. COLTON.

Thompson, of Ohio State University, says: "He is a clear, forcible speaker worthy of the attention and confidence of every University student." The University of Missouri News says that, "He is a typical college man, one of those men who does almost everything, and everything well. He is a graduate of one of the Northern Colleges, and while there was active in almost every phase of student life. He was an all-round athlete, an honour student, a football player, and an orator of considerable ability in that he was a winner of an interstate oratorical contest."

The meeting will be held at 3 o'clock in number 3 Lecture Theatre, Medical building, which is the largest meeting-room in the University.

At the University of California, Leland, Stanford, and other large American Colleges where he has spoken, Mr. Colton has been listened to by large audiences. Doubtless a large number of McGill men will hear him on Saturday afternoon. Dr. W. F. Hamilton will preside at this meeting.

Class Reports.

R. V. C.

1905.

The Class of '05, after several misunderstandings with regard to time, place and other details, managed to hold a meeting on Tuesday of last week. The officers elected for the following year are:—

President—Miss Michaels.

Vice-Pres.—Miss Lyman.

Sec.-Treas.—Miss Idler.

Reporter—Miss Hill.

When we came back after the holidays, our joy at meeting again was much lessened by the discovery that we had lost three of our members, and our troubles did not stop there, for several of the Class had difficulty in arranging their courses. However, everything now seems to be settled satisfactorily, and we are looking forward to our Junior Year as the most pleasant of the four spent at McGill. We congratulate ourselves on our well-chosen officers and representatives. Proofs of our good judgment appear every day, as, for instance, when one of our Annual Board asks whether "Annual" is spelt with one n or two.

Dreadful reports concerning Thursday of this week are circulating. It is rumoured that the courageous Class of '06 are then going to try to tame the girls of '07. We would like to assure the public, that, in spite of their aggressive appearance, the Freshies are quite lamb-like, one of the Professors having been good enough to assume the role of Mary.

1906.

President—Miss Holway.

Vice-Pres.—Miss Clarke.

Sec.-Treas.—Miss Rorke.

Reporter—Miss Douglas.

The Class has had a number of enthusiastic meetings already, at which its representatives to the various associations were appointed as follows:—

Athletic Representative—Miss Holway.

Alma Mater Society—Miss Gilmor.

Reading-Room Com.—Miss Mowatt.

Of course, we have attended all the Receptions and have enjoyed them very much. We think them a fine opportunity for becoming acquainted with the members of the other Years. The Y. W. C. A.'s Tea was unusually successful this year.

R. V. C. '06 is already very enthusiastic about Basket-Ball, and, under the able captaincy of Miss Holway, hopes to hold its last year's championship. By-the-way, we are wondering if that Basket-Ball Cup for Inter-Class competition will materialize during this year. We hope so.

We are glad to report that we have made a good beginning in our Athletics, for our President succeeded in capturing the championship in the Tennis Tournament we had last week. The Tennis was particularly good this year, and we feel justly proud of this our first victory.

1907.

The First Meeting of the Donaldas '07 took place on Monday, September 28, in one of the R. V. C. Classrooms.

Miss Stewart, Secretary of the Fourth Year, conducted the meeting, and its object was to select officers for the ensuing year; the following officers were elected:—

President—Miss E. Macaulay.

Vice-Pres.—Miss J. Wisdom.

Sec.-Treas.—Miss Masson.

Reporter—Miss Crawford.

The Y. W. C. A. Tea, on September 30, was greatly appreciated by the girls of our Year, as it gave us the privilege of becoming acquainted with many of our fellow students. The new Class felt especially the cordiality of the President's welcome.

On the afternoon of October 6, the Common Room was the scene of pleasant enjoyment, the occasion being the Seniors' At Home to the members of our Year. On entering, we were welcomed by the President, Miss Dickson and the other members of '04. After some time pleasantly spent in conversation, dainty refreshments were served, and all did justice to the liberality of our hosts. The hour quickly passed, and in making our "adieux" we felt that we would allow no opportunity to pass for showing gratitude to our Senior Year.

Very green little Freshies entered the Common Room at half past four on October 8, wondering how the Sophomores would find means to initiate them. Various rumours of possible happenings had reached our ears, and made us totally unprepared for the generous and ladylike treatment in store for us. After laying aside our gowns we were ushered into a Classroom where we enjoyed our "first day at school." There is no doubt we were very naughty little Freshies and deserved far more correction than our lenient instructors saw fit to give us. The chief feature was a spelling match, and nice prizes were awarded. After a rather noisy march we returned to the Common Room where we enjoyed a delightful "spread." Then, swearing our allegiance to our Superior Year we retired, and have come to the conclusion that the Sophomores are "all right," and we greatly look forward to passing three pleasant years in their company.

ARTS.

1904.

We have arrived! Be respectful, O Juniors! Hats off, ye Sophs! Down on your faces and worship, Freshies! After perils encountered too vast for your youthful minds to imagine; after emptying oceans of erudition and ink over countless reams of paper, after consuming myriads of gallons of midnight oil and expending a fortune on fees and books, the great learned, famous and notable Class of Arts '04 has reached the sublime heights of Seniority. To do honour to us, the authorities, feeling unable at the moment to put up a new building, have set up a new clock to mark the hours of our erudite lectures; a throng of new professors, deans and janitors stand ready to assist our progress to yet dizzier heights of knowledge, and even the sober, steady-going library, seems to wear an anxious expression on its numerous carven faces at the thought of the indefatigable persistency with which its innermost recesses are to be ransacked in our insatiable search after fresh learning.

Our high and responsible position, of course, rendered necessary a most careful selection of Class officers. What excellent judgment we brought to bear upon this task, the following list sufficiently 'proves:—

President... .. J. G. Archibald.

Vice-Pres... .. George Shanks.

Secretary... .. I. Rubinovitz.

Treasurer... .. Theo. Lomer.

Reporter... .. H. J. Rose.

We heartily congratulate Dr. Moyse on the well-deserved honours he has received, and wish him every success in his new position. To our new professors we offer a cordial welcome.

It was with sincere regret that we heard of Mr. Sidney Mitchell's resignation. The Class waited upon him to say good-bye and present him with a little token of our kindly feelings towards him.

To all whom it may concern: Are the following actions either necessary or polite?—(1) At a meeting such as that with which the term opened, to be in such a hurry to sit down after rising on the entrance of the Principal and Faculty, that the students are in their seats before the lady members of the staff have time to gain theirs. (2) Under similar conditions, to leave the hall with a sushed at the end of the meeting blocking the way of the Donaldas who are present.

1905.

"SCATTERED BUT TOGETHER."

Sadly depleted in numbers, but still cheerful as ever, the Class of Arts '05 has entered upon its Third Year, and is now prepared to demonstrate that it is the best Junior Class that has been since old McGill first started to dispense knowledge to thirsty students (thirsty for learning, you know, not—.)

Among those who fell by the wayside last spring was poor Freddie Dey, the life and spirit of the Class. Freddie failed from going to bed too early and getting up too late.

However, we hear that he may be with us again later, perhaps next year, and we'll welcome him with open arms. Here's luck to you, Fred, and may we see you soon.

Well, to come down to earth, the Annual Meeting was held in due course and the following officers were elected:—

President... .. R. O. McMurtry.

Vice-Pres... .. K. Perry.

Secretary... .. H. Howitt.

Treasurer... .. — Adams.

Examples of what Punk's Moustache Vigoral can do:—T.S., W.S., C.S.T., and K.P.

1906.

"In due time behold me a bold Sophomore."

"Old Song."

Who'd have thought that only thirty of us would live to take up the Sophomore's burden, i.e., making the Freshies know their place. The first Freshie that entered the Classical portals mistook C-s-ns for the Dean. We all know that majestic presence and hardly blame the poor nursling for his trembling at that awful voice.

Our first duty was to throw the Freshies all over the lot. While six stalwarts (six quarters please) held the rope, the rest carried the Naughty Seven bunch over the hill and rubbed their aristocratic noses in the dirt. Even Herbie tackled the giants and pulled bravely at a shoe-lace.

If the Rev. E. I. Rexford's opinion goes for anything, '06 are the rudest boys he ever knew. Why, we were the only thing that kept the meeting from going stale. The Hon. Sidney appreciated our applause very much.

Querie.—“Does it naturally follow that a course in advanced psychology demands a pair of eye-glasses?” Ask George.

Querie No. 2.—“Because a dog’s name is Pickles, is it necessary for naughty Allan to pour a bottle of vinegar down its throat?”

Even the professors are on to the Freshies. On being interrupted by a Freshie coming into the lecture-room, Prof. Morin said: “Don’t bother with such simplicity—rather pity it.” One of the Professors told Marcuse that he Otto buck up and work hard this year. It is a wretched pun, so the author’s name will remain a blank—like his brain.

Some of the members of ’06 think “Down where the Wurtzberger Flows” is all right. What a thing it is to have experience.

Wanted.—Badly, a nurse or some one to slap G-b’s wrist when he talks in the library.

N.B.—Constant attention is required.

SCIENCE.

1904.

The first Class meeting was held Sept. 28. The officers elected were:

President—W. D. Wilson.

Vice-Pres.—Geo. K. McDougall.

Sec.-Treasurer—W. D. Lawrence.

We were unable to obtain the name of the Reporter; he refused to divulge it for obvious political reasons. When last seen he was moving his guns and baggage into a strongly fortified wire cage, with only one latch key, where he will reside for the winter.

At a meeting of the United Fourth Years, Mr. R. F. Taylor was chosen Capt. of the Fourth Year Football Team. No comments needed.

The Reading-Room representatives, Messrs. Wenger and Davis, were chosen last spring, in order to have things running as soon as possible, and to let us all have a look at the “Gazette” before “Peaceful Henry” returns.

P. H., by the way, caught rheumatism while experimenting in the Prohibition Lab. at McGill, and is now taking the mud and water cure at Nijni-Novgorod. He is liable to invade Montreal at any minute.

What’s the matter with the Vice-Dean? He’s an improvement all right, Oh! yes, you bet.

All the men seem to have struck fairly good jobs this summer. Judging from the stories they tell, nearly every plant north of Mexico will have to close down for the winter, for lack of general managers and engineers—they all had to go back to College.

The Freshmen fizzed up this year like pop-soda with the cork out. Let’s hope their enthusiasm will last longer.

Peter McClusky speaks feelingly of the “wild cariboo he has slain.” He says he can run quite fast now.

Since last we met, Chamberlain has convulsed an Empire, and Bickerdike has introduced his Cigar-root Bill, but little reckes Roapheigh so long as the umbrella-hat is still manufactured.

Any funny stunts done by the Miners and Civils will be thankfully received, and solemnly printed.

1905.

The following men have been chosen Class officers for the year:—

President—T. M. Fyshe.

Vice-Pres.—G. P. Sharp.

Sec.-Treasurer—R. W. Boyle.

A word about each of these gentlemen may not be out of place.

Mr. Fyshe, as everybody knows, is prominent in Y. M. C. A. circles, and is popular with the fair sex. He is also much interested in a game called "Association Football." Mr. Sharp, surnamed "Rusty" (which word refers only to his mental attitude towards Calculus), is known chiefly by his lofty contempt of everything outside of British Columbia.

Mr. Boyle is a "cod-hauler," and brainy as they make them. His character is above reproach, and he will make a good financier for the Class. He smokes cigarettes.

We congratulate our general Classmate, Mr. G. A. Johnstone, on his election to the highest position in the gift of the year. No better choice could have been made, as George possesses a philosophic mind, combined with a broad knowledge of men and affairs, a fertile imagination and a magnetic personality. What more could he have?

The Count has another dream. Yes, sir, please, sir. I mean please madam, who hit me; what are you all clubbing me for? Stop it you blooming Celestials; don't you see I am something of an oriental myself? I didn't do it. What! hit a defenceless woman? I never did, you blank hyenas. Oh! yes, I did buy Bovey's Hydraulics by mistake, and so did Guy; but all the same there were plenty of sheep at Melbourne and the boys piled all the corn cobs in front of my plate. My long boots are nearly worn out and I got a call down in Surveying too. Say, I haven't felt so good since the Dinner. Just hear me yell. And I can play baseball too. Look out for yourself, I wish I had Wright's mantle here.

"Mr. Chairman, I will withdraw the name of Mr. Tees, and I might add that I can throw the hammer 172 feet, since I have given Id my last year's job.

1906.

'06 has again settled down to work. We have lost a good many of our original Class, but this loss is made up, to some extent, by those who have dropped back from '05, and also by some who have taken the First Year work at other institutions and have entered the Second Year with us. We sincerely hope the results of the final exams. in April will show fewer names on the Sup. list than last year.

Any one who chooses to compare the list of names posted in Lecture Room No. II., with the number of '06 representatives who mustered in front of the Physics building for the rush, will find quite a difference in number. It appears there were at least twenty who failed to make good.

'06 was well represented at the survey camp this summer, and we certainly had a good time. The weather was all that could be desired, and the people of Richmond? Well, ask Wick. or Dick.; they know. We hope to return next summer.

At 8 o'clock, Wednesday morning, W-t-r arose feeling rather drowsy. He stood for a time contemplating himself in a mirror. "Methinks that drowsiness was caused by over-attention to my lady nicotine, that is to say, I smoke too much. Also, if I am not careful I shall mar the beauty of mine face; see the dark lines under the eyes. W-t-r, o'd man! this won't do." Just then S-t-r advances from the recesses of the room, and, as the good friend he is, advised that W. should take a long rest, and abstain from tobacco for all time to come. W. left his pipe home. On the way to Class, there was something missing. After Analytic again that same something was missing. In vain he tried to borrow a pipe, a cigar, a cigarette. No, not even a cubeb was in sight. W. became frantic. Two more lectures before he would see his beloved briar again. Just then the bell for surveying rang. That was the last straw. He was off down the street and when next seen he was leisurely walking back with his beloved pipe working overtime.

MEDICINE.

"The barge of '04" is out for its final race with all hands on board, and though it still contains Fishers and Crack(s) and the way looks Black, yet with the Cook at the wheel and in possession of the Key(s) of the situation and a Coffin for the dead and all kinds of Graham wafers (though lacking Oleomargarine) and if the Price be not too high we will try and reach port. One member of the crew, believing, doubtless, that there is safety in numbers, which some have been heard to remark, was taking an unfair advantage: however, he will doubtless soon retire to the bald-headed row.

The first day's cruise was eventful, working on the old adage,

"Early to bed and early to rise
Makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise."

All the wise—and some of the otherwise—were out with the first crow of the cock to secure reserved seats, not that they cared at all for the seats, but ye gods and little Fyshes, the best of plans go wrong and the old rule holds "that the first shall be last and the last shall be first."

The Class officers for the year have been elected as follows:—

President—W. J. Cook.
Vice-Pres.—G. A. Wright.
Secretary—J. S. Bentley, B.A.
Treasurer—H. H. Kerr.
Reporter—W. A. Lincoln.

Cheer up, Clarence, it may not be true: "All is not gold that glitters." Yet it looked very like.

1905.

At the Annual Class Meeting for the election of the officers of the Class, the following gentlemen were elected for the ensuing year.

President—F. A. C. Scrimger, B.A.
Vice-Pres.—S. O. Wood.
Secretary—J. H. McDermott.
Treasurer—T. C. Mercer.
Historian—N. Viner, B.A.

The good old summer time is over, and the last of the lingerers has wandered back from his "Summer work" (with a capital S.), to the fold. Good brown healthy tan (with no dark brown taste) speaks plainly of pleasant associations where hats and coats and medical books were all laid aside—almost forgotten.

But the chill days of October awoke many of the dreamers to the fact that work was about to begin. Grandpa was one of the last to awaken, and he strolled in one morning rubbing his eyes and asking for a demonstrator. We knew then that work could proceed at any time.

Casual observation reveals the nature of those pleasant associations. A week's time always suffices to bring it out in song or otherwise. For instance:—

A. R. S-wy-r.

I'm on the water wagon now.

F. F-n-g-n.

Home was never like Kingston.

G. M. H-me.

Has any body seen my "chum?"

Billy Pr-yn.

Business calls me home at times.

Gus Mc—.

If you hain't got no money why you needn't come 'round?

C. A-y- -ng.

Fare thee well, fare thee well (—),
darling!

M-ll-gan.

I'm glad I hid my money now.

S-me-v-lle.

A cold stein for mine.

T. R. B. N.

Could you be true to eyes of blue?

F. W. C. M-hr.

Since I first met you!

W. S. L-gg-e.

I'm tired, so awfully tired.

E. R-mm-l.

Please go 'way and let me sleep.

W. J. Sc-tt.

Then I'd be satisfied with life.

A. Rocke R.

I'm sorry to disturb you,

But my watch is always slow.

Docley S.

Carry me back to dear old Hahvard.

(We hope these few suggestions may prove of use to Messrs. Prendergast and MacDermott, our musical committee, in getting material for the Medical Society.)

OVERHEARD AT THE MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING.

Freshman.—Hasn't our Mr. Johnson a splendid voice?

Junior.—He sings as if he's had some training.

Freshman.—Oh! mercy, yes! he's been eating at the training table for two weeks.

(N.B.—We don't think much of this joke ourselves.)

1907.

OFFICERS.

President—H. B. Blatchford.

Vice-Pres.—A. L. Johnson, B.A.

Secretary—B. C. Robinson.

Treasurer—W. E. Enright, M.A.

Reporter—W. L. Holman, B.A.

Yell. All up! Who's up? Hither!

Stop!

1-9-0-7 we're on top.

Who are the rest? Don't ask us;

We are the men; we make the fuss.

McGill, '07 McGill.

The McGill Class "Naughty Seven" ('07) has been formed. It is to be presumed that that means perfectly naughty—"seven" standing for perfection.—Herald Sieve.

September (the seventh month in the old Roman Calendar) saw our entrance, the men of '07, seventy strong, to Old McGill, in the seventy-second session of the Faculty of Medicine. (Your Reporter regrets it is not the seventy-seventh).

McGill opened her gates and we entered from all the world.

Some looked fresh as some should, some looked seedy as none should, but the big majority were a fine looking lot.

That determination peculiar to Freshmen has shown itself right strongly, but above and beyond this quantity, common to all the Classes who have preceded us, is our characteristic spirit, the spirit that will mark us off as the men of '07 during our four years in Old McGill.

To prove that this is no empty vaunt, we have one among us who is taking the lectures in the various subjects which he will review carefully and have printed for the members of our Class, on payment of a very small amount. This new venture should be encouraged, and we have no doubt will be.

The advantage of being able to listen to a lecture, drawing diagrams, etc., without that mechanical drawback, so detrimental to one's writing of scribbling off notes at break-neck speed, must be felt to be appreciated.

There are many other things to be said in favour of this scheme, but as most of these have been proposed and distributed in printed form, we will forebear.

Sophomore-Freshman Rush.

We call it the Sophomore-Freshman Rush, as we speak of the Franco-Prussian war, the Spanish-American war, etc., because WE WON. We have no doubt about this. Never perhaps has a Class looked forward to the eventful moment as did our Class. An enthusiastic meeting took place in No. II. Suggestions for the best methods of defence and attack were numerous.

Organization from a most complicated system of leaders to none at all was advocated, and finally we decided on a few picked men to bear the first brunt of the collision. The old battle ground, to the east of the Redpath Museum, was the scene of our triumph.

The Biological Lecture-Room was the muster place.

When we heard the first shout of defiance from the Sophomores, a smile passed over the Class, a smile that was a foreboding of ill to those gathered outside. Muscles grew tense with excitement as the hubbub outside increased, but at last "like a dark flood suspended in its course," we were dismissed. Gathering at the door, hurriedly, we organized, and with a red ribbon as our mark of recognition, we rushed from the building. Then we met the Sophomores, we saw we were outnumbered, and right bravely did each Freshman tackle his two Sophs. and rushing them to the bank fling them over. For seven minutes the fight was hard fought, and then we saw we were winning. Soon it was all over, and shaking hands with our friends, the enemy, we returned to the even tenor of our ways with the loyalty for '07 the uppermost thought in our minds.

The Royal Military College.

THERE are few national institutions of more value and interest to the country than the Royal Military College at Kingston. At the same time its object and the work it is accomplishing are not sufficiently understood by the general public.

The College is a Government institution, designed primarily for the purpose of giving the highest technical instructions in all branches of military science to cadets and officers of Canadian Militia. In fact, it is intended to take the place in Canada of the English Woolwich and Sandhurst and the American West Point.

The Commandant and military instructors are all officers on the active list of the Imperial army, lent for the purpose, and in addition there is a complete staff of professors for the civil subjects which form such a large proportion of the College course.

Whilst the College is organized on a strictly military basis the cadets receive in addition to their military studies a thoroughly practical, scientific and sound training in all subjects that are essential to a high and general modern education.

The course in mathematics is very complete and a thorough grounding is given in the subjects of Civil Engineering, Civil and Hydrographic Surveying, Physics, Chemistry, French and English.

The object of the College course is thus to give the cadets a training which shall thoroughly equip them for either a military or civil career.

The strict discipline maintained at the College is one of the most valuable features of the system. As a result of it young men acquire habits of obedience and self-control and consequently of self-reliance and command, as well as experience in controlling and handling their fellows.

In addition, the constant practice of gymnastics, drills and outdoor exercises of all kinds, ensures good health and fine physical condition.

An experienced medical officer is in attendance at the College daily.

Five commissions in the Imperial regular army are annually awarded as prizes to the cadets.

The length of course is three years, in three terms of 9 months' residence each.

The total cost of the three years' course, including board, uniforms, instructional material, and all extras, is from $750 to $800.

The annual competitive examination for admission to the College will take place at the headquarters of the several military districts in which candidates reside, in May of each year.

For full particulars of this examination or for any other information, application should be made as soon as possible to the Adjutant General of Militia, Ottawa, Ont.
